

March 5, 1975

PRESIDENT: Is there objection to Senator Marvel's request for unanimous consent to withdraw the motion to return? Seeing none, the motion to return to Select File for specific amendment is withdrawn. We're now on Final Reading of 555. Senator Lewis, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Mr. Chairman, I don't know how to put this. I think there are some issues that have been raised. I think the Chair was a little . . . I would make a necessary motion in order to get to debate also . . .

PRESIDENT: Well make a motion, would you Senator. The Chair will try to do something with it.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I move to return 555 to Select File, which I will withdraw as soon as I make some comments, for specific amendment.

PRESIDENT: Well what is your specific amendment? Would you make it in writing Senator.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Well, forget it. There are some issues I would like to raise and I can't do it on personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: Well I'm going to stick to the rules, Senator, that there is no debate on Final Reading. I share your concern with this. I think everybody in the House does. Rise to a point of personal privilege and I'll overrule you and hope that I get overruled.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Point of personal privilege Mr. Chairman.

PRESIDENT: What is that point, to argue 555 on Final Reading?

SENATOR F. LEWIS: To bring some information before the membership.

PRESIDENT: You're out of order Senator.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I move to overrule you.

PRESIDENT: The question before the House is shall the Chair be sustained. Record your vote. Record Mr. Clerk. I don't want the beating any worse than it is.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 30 nays.

PRESIDENT: The Chair is overruled.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: (mic inactivated) . . . of the Chair. I don't rise to debate LB 555. I do rise to hopefully bring the membership some information and to verify some of the things that Senator Marvel has said. Obviously, 555 is not the end all solution to the 403 problems. It is a necessary part of the cash flow situation, which I think we need to solve, and we need to move forward in. I don't think I have to address that question to you because I know a number of you already realize that problem. Harold Moser of the Attorney General's office came
